

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Free surplus books DVDs, and other items are available in the Coffee Area.

Please feel free to take what you will use.

Sunday School for all ages will start on Aug. 30th. Please watch the bulletin for more announcements regarding our children's program, and sign up for an adult study at the Welcome Center. Our adult classes will have limited space so sign up soon!

We are planning to start AWANA on Sept. 16th from 6:30 pm – 8 pm.

A BIG part of AWANA are the volunteers who make it possible. We can't do it without enough of you volunteering to be Leaders, Secretaries, Listeners, and Game Leaders. Sign-up in the foyer at the table or call the office during the week. NEEDED – Game leaders, Sparks leaders (all age groups), 3rd & 4th grade Boy's leader & secretary, and Listeners.

Volunteers need to be aware of modifications throughout the evening:

- Masks are optional for kids. For adults – required for Cubbies Leaders/Secretaries and Listeners for all ages due to the important, very close contact they have with kids.
- No Opening, students are to go directly to classrooms. Classrooms will always stay together, except when with a Listener.
- Game time will be scheduled with classrooms staying together.
- During large group time classrooms will stay together and separate from other classes throughout the sanctuary.

 If we do not get enough volunteers, who will agree to these modifications, we may not have AWANA this year. So, please sign-up quickly as this is a MAJOR OUTREACH for the community.

To receive important updates about services and activities at CBC, please contact the office with your email at office@cbcpierre.org or check Facebook (search "CBCPierre.").

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thes 4:13-18)

New Sunday School Classes! Starting August 30

Led by: Joel Jundt

This study will explore the major themes, events, and people that are brought to life in the Bible. The study will engage students in biblical truth and is a starting point to help them understand the content of Scripture. Whether you're new to studying the Bible or want an overview of Scripture, Dust to Glory will provide you with new insights, improve your ability to read, understand, and apply Scripture to your life. We will start with the book of Genesis and travel the text to the book of Revelation over the course of a year. Participants do not need to commit to attend every class.

Led by: Pastor Chance Sumner

This class will cover our church's doctrine, philosophy of ministry, membership privileges and responsibilities, service opportunities, and more. For those interested in becoming members of CBC please sign up for this class.

Please sign up for classes at the Welcome Center

Led by: Sarah Ogan

Countless women today long to be nurtured. They want the love and acceptance of a mother or mother substitute. They want to feel the warmth and security of another woman's approval. Christian women because of the power of grace can overcome their self-centeredness and manifest other-centered virtues that characterize spiritual mothering. This class will focus on learning how to be committed to making a difference for Jesus in this generation through relationships with other women.

Led by: Derrick Haskins

What kind of church would Jesus want to attend? In his letter to the young pastor Titus the apostle Paul lays out the inseparable link between faith and practice, belief, and behavior. Together we will study Titus verse by verse to understand how churches should be led, why discipleship is so important, and what the fruit of the Gospel looks like in daily life.

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

Considering that school started this week, I'd like to take this opportunity to encourage the educators within our congregation. Whether you are a teacher, administrator, principal, manager, office staff, guidance counselor, librarian, custodian, etc., I want to remind you of some truths from Scripture. These truths will help you glorify God as you serve him this school year.

First, work hard. Be the best educator you can be. Sacrifice yourself for the sake of others. Do what you need to do to perform your best. God is not pleased by half-hearted efforts and sloppiness. On the contrary, he delights in diligence and excellence. “Work heartily,” Col 3:23 reads. Why? So that others “may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven” (Matt 5:16).

Second, submit to your superiors. Due to the pandemic, you might have to go along with some safety protocol that you personally disagree with—like wearing a face mask during the school day. If this happens, how should you respond? 1 Peter 2:18 is helpful here. It reads, “Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust.” This passage teaches that our submission to our employer is not contingent upon how we feel about the situation. On the contrary, the Lord requires us to go with the flow, even when we disagree.

Third, seek out opportunities to witness. God will place you in the path of dozens of people each day—students and co-workers—who need the light of the gospel. God has placed you there to show them how great Christ is. Be prayerful about how God wants you to share his love. Be intentional. Actively seek out ways that you can—by word and deed—“let your light shine before people” (Matt 5:16).

Educators, you perform an essential task for our society. We need you. I'm thankful for you. And God has placed you in a unique place to glorify him and bring hope to our community. I pray that God would use these truths to encourage you to follow him in greater acts of obedience this year.

Pastor Chance
