WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

Two Judgments

Considering our reflection on Eccl 12:14, I wanted to discuss what the Bible teaches about future judgment. After death or after the second coming of our Lord, all people will be judged by God (Heb 9:27). This doctrinal point does not mean that Christians and non-Christians will be judged in the same manner. Rather, the Bible also teaches that there will be two different judgments.

The first judgment will be for non-Christians. Perhaps the biblical passage where this judgment shows up most explicitly is Rev 20:11–15. This judgment will be for those who’s names are “not found written in the book of life.” The eternal destination of those who enter this judgment is the lake of fire. This will be a place “of punishment (Matt 25:46), of weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matt 8:12), of anguish and distress (2 Thess 1:6), of destruction (2 Pet 3:7), of corruption (Gal 6:8), and of ruin (1 Thess 5:3)” (Bavinck, Dogmatics, 4:703–04). Praise God for salvation from this judgment!

The second judgment will be for Christians. Perhaps the biblical passage where this judgment shows up most explicitly is 1 Cor 3:13–15. Because Jesus teaches that those who has faith “has eternal life and will not be condemned” (John 5:24), this judgment for the Christian will test their works, not their faith. On that Day, “each one’s work will become manifest” (1 Cor 3:13). The outcome of this judgment will be either reward or no reward (1 Cor 3:14). On this Day, some Christians “will suffer loss” (1 Cor 3:15), though all Christians will experience the eternal bliss that follows this judgment (Rev 21:1–4).

Titus 2 Women’s Discipleship Groups are starting in October!

We hope you’ll consider joining us in a T2D group. We meet in groups of six to eight women just once a month for a year with the goal of getting to know one another better and maturing in our faith in Christ.

This year we’ll discuss the book Praying Together by Megan Hill. A sign-up sheet is at the welcome center with available group dates and times. Books can be found on the bookshelf outside the sanctuary in the narthex. We have extra books, so feel free to get one even if can’t join one of the groups.

We hope that by God’s grace we grow in love of Christ and community while praying together.

If you have any questions, please ask anyone on our women’s ministry team: Sara Ogan, Jenni Bauer, Brenda Engbrecht, Katelyn Todd, Rachel Hettinger, Dawn Nordquist, and Kathryn Sumner.

“Because we loved you so much, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well.”
